John D. Matonich, PS, Honored with Leadership Award

Flint, Michigan, March 21, 2018 – ROWE Professional Services Chairman of the Board John D. Matonich, PS, received the Vernon B. Spalding Leadership Award from the American Council of Engineering Companies of Michigan (ACEC/M).

Matonich was recognized due to his outstanding leadership roles in ACEC/M, several other surveying and engineering industry organizations, and the community. Past leadership roles include serving on Michigan's Natural Resources Commission, president of the National Society of Professional Surveyors, and chair of the Flint and Genesee Chamber of Commerce. He continues to serve in several leadership roles, including as a board member of the Food Bank of Eastern Michigan.

He retired as ROWE's chief executive officer in 2016, his employer of 35 years, and now resides in Marenisco, Mich.

The American Council of Engineering Companies of Michigan is the voice of Michigan's engineering industry. Council members – numbering more than 100 firms throughout the state – are engaged in a wide range of engineering/architectural/surveying works to propel the state's economy and enhance and safeguard Michigan's quality of life.

ROWE's headquarters is in Flint, Mich.; additional offices are located in Lapeer, Mt. Pleasant, Farmington Hills, Lansing, Grayling, and the tri-cities area in Mich., and Myrtle Beach, SC.

ROWE is a full-service professional firm specializing in civil engineering, land surveying, aerial photography/mapping, landscape architecture, and community planning.
